House Passes Bill For $22,462,000 To Sedalia Air Base

Big Portion of the Construction Bill For Military Goes To Air Forces

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—The House today authorized the largest single construction program ever presented to Congress in war or peace. It calls for spending $5,768,720,000.

The roll call vote was 352 to 5.

The major portion of the proposed work, $3,480,661,000 is allotted the air force and will be used to strengthen its bases in this country, in the territories and overseas.

The sum of $1,368,025,000, is earmarked for army construction and $786,267,000 for the navy. In addition, there is about $133,766,000 for joint projects and for construction of recreational and welfare facilities at bases.

The bill simply authorizes the program. Actual funds will have to be supplied later. The military services are asking $4,600,000,000 to get the work under way.

Grandview Is Included
This is in addition to the $56,000,000 military appropriations measure for 1952 passed by the House last week.

The House passed the authorization measure after rejecting an attempt to strike out of the bill a $19,019,000 project for expansion of the Grandview, Mo., air base in President Truman's home county. That action came on a voice vote.

Rep. Gross (R-Ia.) had sought to knock out the Grandview project on the grounds that it was an "extravagance." He contended the air force could use a nearby field at Sedalia, Mo.

The bill authorizes the following in Missouri:

Sedalia air force base, $22,462,000; Fort Leonard Wood, $1,976,400; St. Louis military personnel records center, $22,700,000.

Has Air Force Base Fund

The above bill includes a budget of $22,462,000 for the Sedalia Air Force Base. This money is to be used to improve the runways, buildings, storage, barracks, hospital buildings, gasoline storage, and various other constructions necessary to put the base back into tip-top operating condition. The Sedalia base has a commanding officer assigned to it temporarily. First Lieutenant Innocence Venta of Barksdale Air Force Base, Shreveport, La., arrived last Friday night and took charge at the base.

Work of transferring the properties from the Air Material Command to the Strategic Air Command will take place within the next 15 days.

Urge Pay on Part Of Flood Losses

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—A Missouri Congress member urged today that the government pay for a big part of the property losses in the Kansas-Missouri-Oklahoma floods. He called it "a Marshall Plan for America."

Even as Rep. Bolling (D-Mo.) was plugging for this before a House claims committee, Rep. Scrivener (R-Kas.) introduced legislation to grant tax concessions for losses in the floods.

Bolling told the claims group, which is a judiciary subcommittee, that "the devastation of the floods is comparable to that of war."

"The flood struck a heavy blow at our defense mobilization effort," he said. "In the interest of the United States, the economy of the midwest must be restored at once."

Comparing it to aid spent to help Europe recover from war losses, he said, "this is a Marshall Plan for America."

Bolling and Senator Hennings (D-Mo.) have introduced bills calling for the government to pay for property losses over $100 and up to $1,000,000. A five-member commission would be set up to handle claims.

No Day Off on Death Anniversary

MOSCOW, Aug. 14—(AP)—Soviet workers will no longer get a day off from their labor on Jan. 22—the anniversary of Lenin's death, it was announced today. The day will continue to be a national holiday. But, the announcement said, the workers "according to their wishes" will work on that day. The Presidium of the Supreme Soviet said the workers "correctly" took this position.

Wife of Actor Mische Auer Gives Birth To Daughter

LONDON, Aug. 14—(AP)—Mrs. Susanna Auer, wife of Hollywood actor Mische Auer, gave birth today to a daughter. Auer is making the movie "Clementine" for a British studio.

Speedy Dash Made By a Jet Plane

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14—(AP)—A test pilot for McDonnell Aircraft Corp. recently made a 470-mile roundtrip jet flight between St. Louis and Kansas City in 68 minutes, the company disclosed today.

The pilot, Ed Schoch, made the trip in a Banshee, navy carrier-type fighter. Elapsed time included a landing at Grandview airport, where Schoch was sent to pick up a part needed for McDonnell's newest jet plane—the Demon.

Red Korean Capital Under Air Attack

Planes and Ships Hammer Supply Lines of Enemy

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Aug. 14—(AP)—Allied bombers and fighters struck the Red Korean capital of Pyongyang today in one of the heaviest air raids in weeks.

Maj. Gen. Frank F. Everest, Fifth Air Force commander, said the combined strike of superforts, jets and propeller driven fighters was directed against the "progressively increasing" Communist strength in the Pyongyang area. Other planes and warships hammered at supply routes steadily used by the Reds to build up their forces during armistice negotiations.

U. N. commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said the Reds are much more capable of attacking than they were five weeks ago. If they do attack Eighth army troops will "clobber" them, said their commander, Gen. James A. Van Fleet. He said his troops are "set and ready."

U. N. troops seized a strategic hill north of Hwachon on the central front and warded off a small Red counterattack. To the east allies were pushed back northeast of Kumhwa by day-long attacks of three grenade-throwing Red platoons. Elsewhere along the front Tuesday's action was reported limited to patrol activity.

General Everest said the Pyongyang air attack was directed against supply and ammunition dumps, vehicle repair areas, troop billets and communications facilities. Pilots reported "good to excellent" results.

Shelling by Warships
The navy put on the biggest show Monday.

Warships led by the U. S. cruiser Toledo shelled bridges and railways as much as 230 miles north of the 38th parallel. The Toledo and the Dutch destroyer Van Galen joined besieging warships Monday in a stepped-up bombardment of the Songjin-Chongjin area on the east coast.

Farther south, three destroyers sank 9 sampans trying to sneak Red supplies along water routes near Wonsan, east coast port now in its 108th day of siege.

British, Australian and New Zealand warships hammered Reds on the east coast.

Air Forces mounted 690 sorties in their incessant attack on highway transport. About 100 night flyer planes attacked Red convoys on the road while daytime fighters and bombers ripped up highways, bridges, railways and supply depots.

The Far East Air Force reported 280 trucks were hit on the moderately traveled highway. A communiqué said:

"FEAF planes have destroyed or damaged more than 1,000 vehicles this month in powerful counteraction against the Communists' build-up effort."

But most Red trucks get through. As many as 2,000 have been reported sighted on the highways in a single night. Traffic has been substantially lighter in recent days.

Australian and American jets went hunting along MIG alley for Red jets in northwest Korea but didn't find any.

U. N. ground troops bumped into Reds everywhere they moved. All actions were small.

Largest were on the east coast near Kamsong. Reds launched two attacks in this area in battalion strength. One was broken up by Allied artillery. The other forced U. N. troops to withdraw.

Even Threw in His False Teeth

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Aug. 14—(AP)—Police desk sergeants often take a lot of abuse from indignant citizens under arrest.

But there's a limit—and Newport News Sergeant Johnnie Mueller thinks he's reached it.

As Mueller was searching an unidentified man charged with being drunk last night, the man turned and said:

"You have got everything else—take these, too."

With that, he flipped out his false teeth—uppers and lowers—and huried them at Mueller.

Seek to Deduct Flood Losses

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 14—(AP)—The Missouri State Chamber of Commerce recommended yesterday that those who suffered losses from the June and July floods be permitted to deduct the losses in figuring federal income tax.

The resolution urged changing the internal revenue code "to the end that victims of these floods will receive tax benefit for every dollar of flood loss sustained, less amounts recovered by insurance or grant."

Other resolutions urged: No state veterans' bonus "at this time."

A change in the federal constitution to limit income, gift and inheritance taxes to 25 per cent. The resolution asked the Missouri legislature to pass a pending resolution on the subject.

Establishment of a federal sales tax if necessary for additional revenues now instead of the current plan to increase income tax rates.

A. B. Reed of Joplin and Ralph Couchenour, Jr., of Springfield were elected to fill vacancies on the board of directors. The directors also chose Jefferson City as site for the annual convention next April 16 and 17.

Selection of a new executive manager of the state chamber was deferred.

Break Unless Oatis Freed

House For Cut of Trade Relations With the Czechs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—The House today unanimously advocated immediate severance of commercial relations with Czechoslovakia until William N. Oatis is freed from a Prague jail.

By a standing vote of 231 to 0 the chamber passed and sent to the Senate a resolution expressing the sense of Congress that such action should be taken.

It then ordered a roll-call vote to confirm the standing vote.

Deleted from the resolution was an earlier provision advocating eventual severance of diplomatic ties with Czechoslovakia if Oatis isn't freed in 90 days.

Rep. Armstrong (R-Mo.), who sponsored the proposal aimed at breaking off both commercial and diplomatic relations, told newsmen he had to modify it because "I couldn't get support for the entire proposal."

Some members, Armstrong said, feared that the original proposal might further jeopardize Oatis and other Americans still in Czechoslovakia.

Oatis, an Associated Press correspondent, was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment recently on an espionage charge.

The resolution refers to the "sham trial and unjust conviction" of Oatis and urges the United States government to "take all possible action to bring about his release."

Armstrong, urging the House yesterday to "get tough" with the Czechs, said the newspaperman will be released "within a few weeks" unless released.

The U. S. government has labelled the charges against Oatis baseless.

Report of Torture

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—Asserting that imprisoned correspondent William N. Oatis will die "within a few weeks in a Prague jail" unless released, Rep. Armstrong (R-Mo.) yesterday urged the House to "get tough" with Czechoslovakia.

Armstrong made his plea for strong action as the House approached a vote on a resolution of protest to the Czech government which imprisoned the Associated Press newsmen on espionage charges. The U. S. government has labelled the charges baseless.

Armstrong claimed sufficient backing to pass a resolution not only condemning the action but calling for immediate cessation of commercial ties with Czechoslovakia and eventual severance of diplomatic relations if necessary.

Armstrong said he had received information from Ray Brock, whom he identified as a freelance writer, to the effect that Oatis is "getting the full treatment of confinement and torture."

Ban Publication of 20 'Commie' Papers

TOKYO, Aug. 14—(AP)—The Attorney General's office today banned publication of 20 Communist newspapers, bringing to 1,756 the number of Red Japanese journals suspended since July, 1950.

Most of the publications banned in today's orders were organs of local Communist committees.

V-J Day Just Six Years Ago

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 14—(AP)—Six years ago today the Japanese surrendered to the United States.

The smallest state in the union, Rhode Island, however, is the only one of the 48 to observe it as Victory (V-J) Day with a legal holiday.

Business, mercantile and manufacturing establishments were closed by law and many municipalities staged formal celebrations.

Although the Japanese surrendered August 14, 1945, the officially designated V-J Day was made September 2, the date of the surrender ceremony aboard the U. S. S. Missouri.

Eleven Perish As Plane Hits Apartment

Other Possible Victims May be Found in Rubble

SEATTLE, Aug. 14—(AP)—A roaring four-engine air force bomber plowed into an apartment house here yesterday afternoon, killing six crewmen and at least five residents of the structure.

A raging fire which reduced the wreckage and most of the building to a tangled charred mess of rubble may have killed others. Hours after the blazed firemen played streams of water on the smoldering heap, attempting to cool it enough to permit further search.

The bodies of the 11 known dead were recovered by nightfall. It is believed more may be found today.

What caused the huge B-50 bomber to crash is not known. Witnesses said all its four motors appeared to be working perfectly in a tremendous effort to gain altitude after taking off from Boeing Field. But at approximately 700 feet started losing altitude rapidly and turned into a stiff right bank.

A leading edge of the plane grazed a wall of a brewery building and crashed into a concrete bulkhead behind it. The plane's nose struck a line of automobiles parked in front of the apartment house and the huge craft flipped over and it tipped into the brick-faced Lestel apartments.

Only about one-third the 64 persons normally resident in the building were home. Nine were burned severely or injured in the impact, at least five others died. Three of the crewmen aboard the plane were Boeing airplane company test personnel. The others were air force men. Two were identified by the air force as Capt. Charles A. Dewis, 30, of Austin, Texas, radar observer and Lieut. Lloyd C. Vanderwieken, 33, Seattle, pilot.

Rescue Work Difficult

Nearly 4,000 gallons of gasoline and oil in the giant craft's tanks caught fire almost immediately after the impact, searing some persons and hindering rescue work. Water poured on the flaming mass served in part to spread the flames as gasoline ran through the structure on the surface of the water.

Occasional bursts of flame drove firemen back as new gas pools would light and it was nearly five hours after the tragic crash at 2:18 p. m., Pacific Daylight Time (4:18 EST) before the blaze could be called under control.

Boy Drowns In Swimming Pool Monday

HIGH RIDGE, Mo., Aug. 14—(AP)—Milton Cummings, Jr., 11, drowned in a swimming pool at a private home yesterday in this Jefferson county town 20 miles southwest of St. Louis.

The youth and five other children had been swimming in the pool.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cummings of St. Louis.

Charge Armless, Legless Man of Writing Checks

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14—(AP)—Orlando Rambo, who has no arms or legs, is slated to stand trial Aug. 29 on charges of writing three bad checks.

Police said Rambo holds a pen between his chin and shoulder.

Deaths and Prostrations Due Texas Heat Wave

DALLAS, Aug. 14—(AP)—A searing heat wave piled new troubles on Texas today.

At least six persons, most of them youngsters, drowned yesterday. Many heat-weary citizens sought the coolness of streams and lakes.

The state has counted 26 deaths from heat prostration in the current heat wave.

The U. S. geological survey said figures on stream flow and underground water levels indicated the Texas drought equals any on record.

At mid-morning today skies were clear over the nation's biggest state, and a blazing sun sent temperatures vaulting. At 8:30 a. m. the Dallas reading hit 90. It was expected to reach 105 before sundown.

Yesterday 100-plus readings covered most of Texas. Corsicana in central Texas reported 109. Other high readings: Fort Worth and College Station 105; Dallas and Waco 104; Orange, Mineral Wells and Presidio 103; Wichita Falls, Lufkin, Junction and Cotulla 102. The 103 at Orange, on the coast, was the high-

Money Is Need In Defense

Committee in Support of a $784,750,000 Aid Program

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—Europe's major defense problem is money, not manpower, the House Foreign Affairs committee said today in support of a $784,750,000 foreign-aid program.

In a formal report to the House, the committee quoted General Eisenhower, head of western Europe defense armies, as saying that "men were being called up and trained faster than equipment was arriving."

"Manpower is not the bottleneck in developing European defense," the committee said. "The limiting factors are equipment and money. . . . General Eisenhower was emphatic on this point."

What's needed, the committee emphasized, is American financial help until the free nations of the world are in a position to pay for their own defenses.

"Not Carry World on Backs"

But, it warned, the foreign-aid program is "not a program under which we will carry the rest of the world on our backs. It is the plan of the program that United States assistance to western European self-help will enable our friends in that area to hold the line themselves soon."

The program approved by the committee calls for $651,250,000 more than the $500,000,000 asked by President Truman.

A Republican-sponsored move was under way in the Senate to trim the administration request by 15 per cent. Some Democrats labelled that too drastic.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) told reporters he will push for an across-the-board slash in both military and economic aid funds when the Senate foreign relations and armed services committees resume work on the authorization measure. The measure now carries authorization for $6,300,000,000 military and $2,200,000,000 economic aid.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) put off any showdown until the House acts, possibly this week, on a similar bill from which its foreign affairs committee trimmed $651,000,000.

Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) told a reporter he thinks a 15 per cent cut, which would mean a total reduction of $1,275,000,000, is "too much."

Cut by Areas

"The present attitude of the committee is that some reduction ought to be made, but the cuts ought to be on a selective basis—by items or by areas—rather than on an across-the-board basis," Sparkman said.

Senator Fullbright (D-Ark.) said he thinks a 10 per cent reduction in the original total "might not be far off."

He added, however, he likes the idea of cutting military and economic aid in equal amounts, because he believes the economic aid will largely go into the building of European defense industries which can produce arms for that area cheaper than they can be made in the United States.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa.) said he doesn't want to reduce the military outlays as much as the economic aid, but "if we can't cut to separate the two in this case."

The Iowa predicted that in the end the authorization will be "cut substantially." Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) had moved to approve the full military total in the bill but Knowland's motion was made as a substitute to his and will be voted on first.

Before the committees began work on the bill yesterday, the foreign relations group approved a subcommittee report which suggested that $200,000,000 in military aid be cut.

Conservation Water

The Dallas city council met today to switch its water-rationing program from a voluntary to a compulsory basis. Even numbered houses will be allowed to water lawns on even numbered days, the odds on odd numbered days. The council planned to set a $200 fine for violations.

The picture was not entirely dark. Mayor Armistead D. Rust of San Angelo in west Texas issued a proclamation asking citizens there to offer prayers of thanksgiving for life-giving rains. San Angelo received more than two inches of rain over the week-end and it appeared water restrictions might be eased.

Lie Detector Test Scheduled

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14—(AP)—A man arrested yesterday for questioning in the mysterious slaying of Mrs. Lillian Null, 58, of Eureka was scheduled to take a lie detector test in St. Louis today.

The 52-year-old man, a resident of Eureka, was held without charge.

Sheriff Arthur C. Mosley of St. Louis county said the man, who denied knowledge of the slaying, was picked up on general suspicion because of his reputation.

Mrs. Null, a church worker in the St. Louis county town, was found beaten to death in back of her home last Wednesday.

Under questioning last night in the St. Louis county sheriff's office, the man said he knew Mrs. Null only slightly and had never been in her house. He said he was at his home on the night of August 5 when authorities Mrs. Null was slain.

No motive has been established for the slaying.

William R. Hearst Dies at Beverly Hills

Publisher in Prime Headed Chain Of Newspapers

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Aug. 14—(AP)—William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, died today. He was 88.

The man whose chain of American newspapers represented a $200,000,000 enterprise at its peak succumbed in a coma at his home here.

He had been ill in health for some time and periodically in recent years there were reports that he was dying but his native strength repeatedly returned "the Chief" to active direction of his papers.

Then yesterday Hearst sank into a coma. He died at 5:50 a. m. today.

Present at the death bed were his five sons, William Randolph Jr., publisher of the New York Journal American; Randolph, publisher of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin; David, publisher of the Los Angeles Herald and Express; John and George Hearst.

Also present were Martin F. Hubbert, chairman, and Richard E. Berlin, president, of the Hearst corporation.

Fought Communism

Hearst was one of the nation's most controversial figures in newspaper editing and publishing. On one hand he was called a "yellow journalist" and on the other, a genius.

Certainly it could be said that his newspapers were never dull. He was a great campaigner for or against causes. He fought public utilities, battled governments, was an uncompromising foe of Communism. Equally, he was a great

Might to Avert A Third War

Mobilizer of Defense Wilson Tells of Danger

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 14—(AP)—Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson said today the danger of a third world war is "greater than ever" and it can be averted only in building American might.

Warning the country against being lulled by Moscow's "sweet talk," Wilson said military and industrial strength is the only language Soviet Russia really understands.

Wilson made the statements in an address prepared for the National Institute for Chamber of Commerce and Trade association executives.

On the domestic front, he said that price control changes recently directed by Congress may mean meat black markets and living cost boosts of five to eight per cent.

He said the ban voted by Congress in the new defense production act against government slaughtering controls may concentrate meat supply in large packers. This may lead, he said, to "local meat famines" which the customer can avoid only by paying illegal and extortionate prices for black market meat.

Wilson said new rules directed by Congress for calculating price ceilings will require higher prices and consequently higher wages.

"The dog keeps chasing his tail," Wilson said, "and where it stops nobody knows."

The mobilization chief said the Soviet haggling and quibbling in the Korean peace talks, coupled with other developments, plainly indicates the Kremlin is not matching its declared desire for peace with deeds.

No where in the world, said Wilson, is the struggle between Communism and the free world abating.

"The Communists," Wilson said, "are still continuing their campaign in Malaya and Indo-China. In eastern Berlin, the German youth were being fed with hatred of the United States at the same time."

Troops Ready For 'Clobber' of The Red Forces

Near Disaster For 'Comms'

BERLIN, Aug. 14—(AP)—The Western Allies sized up the World Youth Festival in Berlin today as a near disaster for Communism in Germany.

Official observers are planning to report back to their governments at the end of the festival this week the following conclusions:

1—East German Communist youth were exposed to West Berlin in such numbers they may flood their home areas with prowestern feeling.

2—Many delegates from the satellite nations, restricted to the Soviet sector of Berlin, were impressed by the fact that the cause of Communism has been stopped cold on the iron curtain border and is pushing westward.

3—The lack of enthusiasm among the German youth has cast a sharp reflection on the party indoctrination work and the men responsible for it.

West officials estimate the Communists will have spent upwards of $40,000,000 on their show by the end of this week.

U. S. high commission agencies and channels are spending about $250,000 to show the Soviet zoners how life is on this side of the curtain.

Former Spy of Reds Testifies About I.P.R.

Miss Bentley Puts It in Communist Front Category

By G. Milton Kelly
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(AP)—Elizabeth Bentley, self-styled former Communist spy, swore today that she and fellow agents knew the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) to be "red as a rose" and too openly tied to Communism for undercover workers to approach.

She also testified that the late Harry Dexter White, former under secretary of treasury, and Lauchlin Currie, a war-time key adviser to President Roosevelt, were two of the most valuable government officials to Communists spies.

Miss Bentley was a witness before the Senate internal security subcommittee which has charged that the Communists used the IPR to influence U. S. policy in the Far East. IPR, a private group, denies this.

She did not connect White with the IPR, but said much of the information Currie supplied to the espionage ring involved the Far East. She said she never learned whether either was a card-carrying Communist.

She had testified before the House Un-American Activities committee in 1948 that White had Communist affiliations. He denied this and died shortly afterwards of a heart attack.

For two hours before the Senate group she reeled off names and accusations of Communist affiliation or tieup, and details of espionage activity for Soviet Russia. The subcommittee then called an unexpected recess before taking closed-door testimony from her concerning "a friendly foreign government" not otherwise identified.

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Only Propaganda Can Win the Cold War

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

NOTE — Drew Pearson is on another tour of Europe studying conditions there in this period of world tension and crisis. Following is another of his dispatches from central Europe.

Near the iron curtain, in central Europe — the most important answer to the alarming question put before Congress recently by Secretaries Marshall and Pace — "will there be war with Russia soon?" — lies in the long stretch of barbed wire extending from the Black Sea to the Baltic which Winston Churchill named the iron curtain.

Most Americans, including the U. S. government, have neglected the importance of this barrier between east and west.

We have failed to realize that there will always exist the danger of war with Russia as long as this curtain exists as long as the Moscow radio can tell the Russian people anything they want about us and the Russian people have no way of knowing the opposite; and as long as there is no free parliament, no free church, no free press, no free public opinion to prevent the Kremlin from declaring war.

We have also failed to realize that even if we fight a war with Russia and win, actually our victory will be temporary unless we can convert the Russian people to friendship with the U. S. A. Until we have done that, we shall have to fight wars all over again.

Finally we have failed to realize that Russia has never been conquered by force of arms. Napoleon tried it and got bogged down on the road to Moscow. Hitler also tried it and got swamped in front of Stalingrad.

But the Kaiser, having been stopped in Latvia, picked up Lenin in Switzerland, put him on a special train with drawn blinds, and sent him to Russia. It was after this that Russia, under a new Bolshevik regime, finally surrendered.

In other words, it was propaganda and politics which really defeated the czar.

Weather Balloons
That is one reason why I have been hammering home the idea that we should use any and all kinds of propaganda, including weather balloons to penetrate the iron curtain and get the truth to the people of Russia and the satellite.

No matter what else is happening inside Russia, one thing is certain. Stalin has imposed the iron curtain for the specific reason that he fears contact between the Russian people and the outside world.

He knows, and a small segment of the Russian people also know, how American and Soviet troops drank vodka together, toasted their mutual friendship together on the shores of the River Elbe at the end of the war.

He also knows how soldiers of the Red army who have visited Vienna, Warsaw, Prague or even shell-pocked Berlin, have returned to tell their friends about the culture and economic progress of the free world lying beyond the Soviet border. Some of these soldiers have shown such enthusiasm over the west and such skepticism over communism that it has been necessary to isolate them, following their discharge, from their native villages.

Stalin also knows that when the Nazis advanced into Russia in 1940 the astounding total of 3,600,000 Russians surrendered to the Germans.

We in the west did not know about this wholesale surrender until after we had seized German documents and interviewed German officers after V-E day. But Stalin knew. And he knew that the German army never would have penetrated Russia as it did if whole segments of the Red army had not been eager to surrender.

The Kaiser's army in 1915-17 advanced only to Riga. It never actually reached the soil of Russia proper. Hitler's army in 1940 marched two-thirds of the way across Russia, right down to the Caucasus. In other words, the czar, with all his tyranny, commanded more loyalty than Stalin. These are some of the reasons for the iron curtain. These also are some of the reasons why we must make the iron curtain a lace curtain if we are to prevent war; if we are to win permanent peace over a period of years.

Counterpropaganda
Propaganda balloons floated across the iron curtain have their drawbacks. If they disrupt satellite and Russian public opinion enough, the Kremlin is bound to start the rumor that they are carrying bacteriological warfare—germs aimed to ruin the crops of the Communist people.

The Kremlin may also plant a bomb with an alleged propaganda balloon, arrange to kill someone and then claim that westerners are trying to murder the Russian people.

Some counterpropaganda like this is almost certain to happen. But when two nations suffer such strained relations as the USA and USSR you can't make those relations any worse, and sometimes revolutionary methods and radical surgery improve them. Certainly it will be true that the louder the Kremlin squawks and tries to twist the meaning of friendship messages to the Russian people, the more it is certain that such propaganda is hurting.

Freedom—friendship balloons floated across the iron curtain are not, of course, going to change the people of Russia, Czechoslovakia and Hungary overnight. But they can help. And added to the Voice of America and other propaganda some of which cannot be written about, they can hit the Kremlin in the Achilles' heel which Stalin is worried most about — the fear that the people behind the iron curtain may get to know that we are a friendly, peaceful people who will fight if necessary, but who, contrary to the Russian radio, do not want war.

Out Our Way

By J. R. Williams

VIII
PETER VROOM was uncannily right about Georges Benoit's health. The Frenchman interviewed a crew of some score of Fang-due jungle tribesmen for the "bodyguard" and then on the third morning he was sick. But not with fever.

"You are not sick also only because 'they' are not yet sure of the location of the emerald crested hopoe," he told Alan Barton. "Be on guard, my friend. Take care."

A doctor came and tried to be non-committal, but Alan took him to his own room with the barred windows. "Let's have this straight, Doc. I know this isn't fever. So what is it?"

The doctor pursed his lips. "I find, Monsieur, an acute irritation of the gastro-intestinal tract."

"Is that your way of saying poison?"
The doctor hedged. "One cannot off-hand make so serious a statement, Monsieur. One must have samples, one must analyze."

"Okay, then. Let's take him to the hospital."

The doctor shrugged as though to shrink up within his shoulders. He looked this way and that and out of the window. At last he said: "Monsieur, I must speak frankly. This Monsieur Benoit is well known to have taken considerable interest in the affairs of this country, not as a politician, but as a patriot, for which I admire him, since I too may claim myself as one. In our hospital, you must understand, some of our nurses are natives, some are Eurasians, a very few are European. They are good nurses, yet in these times of fanatical political ideologies, when even the literate balance upon the rail—you understand."

"Someone might think it a patriotic act to forget to give him the right shot in the arm at the right time, or even the wrong shot?" Alan put it brutally.

The doctor said, "I can say with positiveness that this patient needs to be guarded and to be nursed."

Alan's jaw and shoulder muscles bunched up together. "Thanks for the straight dope," he said. And through his teeth, "We'll keep him in his room here. And any fence sitter who may happen along will be another patient of yours. And I know where to get a nurse I can trust." He tapped his finger on the doctor's chest. "I'll expect you here three times a day and I don't care who may be having an emergency."

ALAN wouldn't trust the too-dark complexioned young man at the hotel desk. He told the manager personally that Benoit's room was locked and he demanded all the spare keys and he walked personally through the vast threatening stone sculptures of the Phnom to the telegraph office to send a telegram to Lucy Villiers. "Catch, charter, or steal a plane. Stop. We need you. Stop."

She was there that evening. She walked unannounced into the hotel. Alan, sitting alone outside of Benoit's door, saw her come briskly down the passage, fresh and indisputably white and worried; and all his own worry drained away from him. He no longer felt alone. He impetuously hugged her. She was unused to American enthusiasm. She pushed him away, saying in her precise English, "Less demonstration and more explanation, please."

Alan told her the whole story. She nodded her quick grasp of it as it went and, "I picked him for all right. So now we've got to jolly well watch out for who's all wrong."

"I know well enough," Alan said, his shoulders hunching again. "They're after the hidden idol to hold it for their bloody banner of revolution. Benoit is too canny with his local knowledge so he must be put out of the way. I'm alive only because I'm a dope who may lead them to the spot. Vroom is the local organizer, and in his religion what do a few lives matter."

Lucy nodded her poised consideration of it all. "And with money enough to infiltrate anywhere, in this sort of a place, servants slipping barefooted everywhere by the dozens, anybody can be anybody. We'll just have to mount guard."

"You say WE?" Alan moved to hug her again. She composedly held him off.

Lucy said, "I'm a nurse. I have to watch my patient."

"I've got some thick-skinned animal catchers. Fang-due."

"They can be primitively honest. If any of them speak any Annamese I've got to sit by the door and stab anybody who tries to get in without a passport."

LATER, Benoit's servant, dressed now in a long yellow robe and his head shaven, reported that talk with the monks in the temple indicated that the relic was definitely there, probably buried under the silver floor, or perhaps in the little green pagoda within the courtyard containing the sacred imprint of the Buddha's foot. But he couldn't find out for sure because one of the monks had talked too incautiously to a stranger—an other American—and one of the stone dragon guards had killed him.

Exactly how the dragon had killed the monk, nobody knew. One morning he had been found on the brass platform at the below's feet, horribly mangled his joints twisted out and his bones broken. Since he had wickedly talked about sacred things the dragon had not eaten his befoiled flesh, just smashed him and let him die.

"I'm wondering," Alan said grimly, "how much photographing they'll stand for before they'll guess I'm snooping?"

Lucy reiterated Benoit's conviction. "As a tourist you're a sacred cow and you're supposed to be as stupid as a tourist."

Kem Voices a Word of Caution

ST. CHARLES, Mo., Aug. 14.—(P)—The disastrous Kansas-Missouri flood should not be used to bring about pressure for economic and political changes, Sen. Kem (R-Mo.) said last night.
Kem spoke briefly after hearing demands at a flood control meeting that flood control be taken out of the hands of the army engineers.

William J. Becker, counsel for the newly-formed Alton pool protective association, asserted the engineers have done nothing right in 30 years.

Bridal Shower In Honor Of Miss Stuhner

A bridal shower was given by Mrs. Leonard Rehak at her home, 1813 South Park Friday night, August 10th, honoring Miss Elsie Stuhner, who will be married to Mr. John Robinson, Arrow Rock, Mo., in the near future.

The home was decorated with large bouquets of garden flowers. Miss Stuhner was seated under a large blue and white umbrella, on which were attached various colored balloons, each balloon containing a tiny note telling Miss Stuhner where to find her gifts, which were hidden throughout the house. She was also presented with a corsage by the hostess.

The evening was spent playing games with awards going to Miss Teresa Straka and Mrs. F. C. Klein. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Rehak and she was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. George Brach.

Those present were: The honoree, Miss Stuhner, Mrs. John Straka, Mrs. Westie Lewis, Mrs. F. C. Klein, Mrs. Harold Stuhner, Mrs. Frank Brosch, Miss Teresa Strake, Miss Mary Lee Stuhner, Mrs. George Brosch and Judith Ann, Mrs. Francis Seifner, Mrs. Glenn Portis, Miss Betty Brosch, and Mrs. A. A. Patterson.

Shower Given Recent Bride

Miss Evelyn Williams and Mrs. Dale Hall gave a miscellaneous shower, Friday evening at the Williams home, honoring Mrs. Dale Elwell, a recent bride.

The house was decorated with cut flowers. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth, an umbrella centering it with various colored streamers attached to the chandelier.

Guests present were: Mrs. Elton Jones, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mrs. Mildred Roberts, Mrs. Noel Snow, Mrs. Cody Reynolds, Mrs. Ruby Crawford, Misses Jesse Mahin, Ruth Evelyn Ferris, Rosana Halenbeck, Una Fay Hudson, Carolyn Breshears and Mrs. Ira Williams, Sr., Mrs. Evelyn.

Other guests invited who sent gifts but were unable to attend were: Mrs. Irene Kapelman, Mrs. Nadia Reans, Mrs. Lucile Reavis and Mrs. Cora Snow of Sedalia.

Refreshments were served and the honoree received many nice gifts.

Entertained At Cabin Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Henderson, 315 West Tenth, entertained Sunday at their cabin on the lake.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Art Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ross of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cook and family of Sedalia.

Winners In Golf Match

Four persons shared in the prize awards following the special 9 hole Mixed Scottish Foursome played Sunday by members of the Sedalia County club. The low score prizes were awarded to Hugo Sparr and Mrs. Norman Scotten.

Prizes for the most one putts were awarded to Lloyd Parker and Mrs. Herbert Studer.

Find Lester Holiday Dead in His Room

Lester Holiday, 66, Negro, was found dead in his room at 209 East Jefferson about 6:15 a.m. today. Death, Dr. C. Gordon Stauffer, coroner, said was attributed to a heart condition.

Holiday was found by "Buster" Glasgow who had gone to his room to awaken him. Holiday usually got up about 5:30 in the morning to prepare to go to his work and when he was not heard at 6:00 o'clock Glasgow went to his room and found him dead. Police were called and investigated and then notified Dr. Stauffer.

The man was heard about 5:00 o'clock by another roomer who said he heard him cough. He had been dead but a short time when found.

The body was taken to the Ferguson funeral home.

Lost Cash and Checks
While Shopping

Four ten dollar bills and a check for $53.07 made to the Sedalia Plumbing company, was lost Friday about 11 a. m. by Mrs. A. L. Henderson, 315 West Tenth, while she was buying groceries at the Golden store.

Mrs. Henderson had the money wrapped up in the check and in some manner lost it while in the store.

Riot Breaks in Utah Prison

Officers Rush There After Warden And Guard Seized

By William E. Larkworthy
POINT-OF-THE-MOUNTAIN, Utah, Aug. 14—(P)—An inmate swinging a chain at a guard set off an outbreak at the state prison today and with other convicts seized the acting warden and a guard.
A prison spokesman said the convict and two other inmates then released some other prisoners cells in the maximum security section of the new multimillion dollar penitentiary.
The trio seized Weston E. Haslam, acting warden since last Friday at the trouble-ridden institution and guard Edward A. Schmidt.
The cause of the third outbreak in three months was not immediately known. But the three inmates, the spokesman said, demanded to be taken to the highway by the state highway patrol superintendent Joseph E. Duder, who managed the prison for a short time after a previous riot.
The three were Alvin Strauss, armed with a bull chain, Wayne Johnston and Lee West.
Guard Wayne Hoobler, who was attacked in June by Strauss with a knife, said of today's trouble: "I went to talk with the officers in 'B' block. I saw Johnston and Strauss come out of their cells. Strauss grabbed my shirt front and said: "I am going to kill you—"

Strauss struck the guard with the chain (used with a padlock on cells).
Hoobler, a well built 29-year-old, escaped serious injury. The front of his shirt was torn up. "I knocked him down," Hoobler continued, "and we wrestled for a minute. And then I heard the gun go off (a gun fired by a lower guard)."
Hoobler got up and "looked around for someone else to fight, and then I got out of there."
Acting warden Haslam and guard Schmidt then came upon the scene.
State highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies carrying riot guns and tear gas hurried to the gleaming white stone institution which houses 472 inmates.

tary and $200,000,000 in economic aid be given to Spain.
The full committee deleted from the report sections criticizing the Franco regime. This action apparently took into account an assertion attributed to U. S. Ambassador Stanton Griffiths that unless American help is given, any additions to the Spanish army can be equipped "only with broomsticks."
A staff memorandum of nine committee members who visited Europe in July quoted Franco as saying: "Spain could produce a 2,000,000-man army. But he said circumstances would determine whether Spain would fight in the case of Russian aggression."
The memo quoted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as telling visiting senators that if the job of rearming Europe is dragged out it will fail.
Eisenhower said that if he needed more divisions, he would not hesitate to ask for them, but the memo did not make it clear whether he was speaking of American or European divisions.
Prime Minister Clement Attlee was quoted as telling the senators that "I, S. can count on Britain, a sentence seconded by Winston Churchill. But U. S. Ambassador to Britain, Walter Gifford, said the British seem to believe they are entitled to a "special relationship" in the North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO), because the U. K. is the seat of empire.

Asks $50,000 in A Damage Suit
A damage suit seeking $50,000 has been filed in the Pettis county circuit court by Jewell Page, Ottaville, against Andrew M. Niemeyer, Syracuse, Otto Zimmerschied, Ottaville; Andrew F. Anderson, doing business as Parkview Laundry and Frank Lang, doing business as Lang's Cleaners, as a result of an accident March 13, 1951.
Page was a passenger in a 1947 Ford sedan driven by Zimmerschied, which was in collision with a Chevrolet panel truck driven by Niemeyer, about two miles east of Sedalia on highway 50. The cars collided head on and both were badly damaged.
William F. Brown is the attorney for the plaintiff.
The petition, Mrs. Page was seriously injured in the accident and was confined to the Bothwell hospital for several weeks. Zimmerschied was also injured and was hospitalized.

Back to Jail When Heard to Depart
Ed Wall, who reported he stays 19 miles northeast of Sedalia, was sentenced to 30 days in the city jail, this morning on a vagrancy charge. Wall had just completed a 10-day sentence on Monday on a similar charge.
Wall when he appeared before Judge Jerry Trotter was asked if he were released would he leave town immediately, to which he replied, "well judge I can't promise."
Judge Trotter replied, "well I can't promise you anything but 30-more days in jail, if that's your attitude."

Addresses The Optimists

Lee Deason was the speaker at the Optimist club today noon at the Bothwell hotel. Mr. Deason talked on the Investment Diversified Service, Inc., of which he is zone manager, explaining its advantages and telling of the long term savings plan and the incorporation for retirement.

champion of Americanism, he fought for the eight-hour day and women's suffrage.
Executives of the Hearst papers, as well as employees, knew him as "the Chief." A businessman of great stature, he was also master of the fabulous San Simeon ranch in California where he entertained his guests on a scale of almost undreamed of luxury.
He also had the famous 67,000-acre estate, Wynton, on the McCloud river in northern California, a $15,000,000 art collection, ranch holdings in Mexico, magazine publishing enterprises and motion picture ventures.

Among his movie enterprises was the International Film Co., whose brightest star in the 1920s was the publisher's long time friend, Marian Davies. Later Miss Davies was president of the Hollywood Cosmopolitan Productions which combined with Warner Bros. in 1934 to produce her pictures.
Inherited Fortune
Hearst was born in San Francisco, an only child. He inherited an estimated $25,000,000 fortune from his father, George Hearst, a former U. S. senator. The fortune included ranches, gold mines, bank and railroad stocks.

But instead of living a life of ease Hearst plunged into a life-long career of journalistic jousting. He started with the "broken down" San Francisco Examiner in 1887. He introduced red headlines and big black type. He breathed the breath of circulation life into that paper, then swung across the nation to enter the New York field in competition with Joseph Pulitzer's press.

From then on his ventures spread throughout the nation until at one time he had an empire of 22 newspapers and magazines, the American Weekly and the International News Service. He employed 27,000 persons in these enterprises.
Hearst was a notable developer of special writers or columnists. The greatest of these was the late Arthur Brisbane, who became a Hearst executive at $265,000 a year. There were the late Damon Runyon, from the sports field; Walter Winchell, night life writer and Louella O. Parsons, the movie writer and many others.

Fair Carnival Arrives Tonight

The Cetlin and Wilson World on Parade Shows arrives at the Missouri State Fair grounds tonight between 7:00 and 8:00 o'clock. The large special train is due to be moved onto the state fair spur and siding about that time.

Former Spy of Reds Testifies About I.P.R.

thau weakened in his support of the plan.
By G. Milton Kelly
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14—(P)—Elizabeth Bentley, who says she is a former Communist spy, testified today that the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR) "was a Communist front organization of a sort."

She told the Senate internal security subcommittee that IPR was described to her once by a fellow Communist espionage agent as "one of our organizations" and "under our control."
But, she added, Russian agent Jacob Golos, who was her boss, also told her once that "IPR is operating far too loosely" and as a result was making "many blunders."

The IPR is a private organization which was formed in the 1920s with the declared purpose of promoting study of Far Eastern problems.
Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), who heads the Senate subcommittee, contends the IPR has been used extensively by Communists to influence U. S. Far Eastern policy. The organization denies this.

Miss Bentley has been a frequent witness at the capital for several years, testifying at most of the congressional hearings dealing with subversive activities.
Now in her 40s, her story is that she fell in love with Golos and became a courier for a Communist spy ring.

Miss Bentley told the subcommittee that she succeeded to most of Golos' duties as a top spy agent after his death of a heart attack in 1943.
Speaking in a low voice that at times got almost lost in the big, crowded hearing room, Miss Bentley told of engineering access to secrets of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), U. S. war-time espionage agency.

Arranged Transfer
She said she arranged for the transfer of Duncan Lee, whom she described as a "New York lawyer," from the IPR staff to OSS, from which post she said, he fed the spy group information and "was one of our most valuable workers."
"He was frightened to death of what he was doing," she said, and sometimes wrote his messages on scraps of paper which were slipped to couriers.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), a subcommittee member, told a reporter he expects Miss Bentley will be asked especially about charges she has repeatedly made that Lauchlin Currie, a war-time key adviser to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, gave "inside information" to her spy ring.
Currie, who also was a senior adviser to the IPR, has sworn before the House un-American activities committee that he did no spy work.

Miss Bentley is expected to be questioned also concerning Michael Greenberg, a former government employee who worked with Currie in the IPR and once edited its official bulletin, Pacific Affairs.
Dr. Karl August Wittfogel, a former German Communist, last week named Greenberg as a man he believes to have been a Communist. Wittfogel is now a member of the University of Washington staff at Seattle.

Capital City Scouts Win Swim Meet

Held at Sedalia's Pool With 250 Boys In Various Events

Jefferson City's Boy Scout Troop No. 2 swam away with the first place team championship in the Boy Scout swim meet at the Liberty Park pool Monday night.

In winning the first place trophy, which was given by Rosen-thals, the Capital City Scouts marked up 50 points.

The meet was sponsored by the Lake of the Ozarks Council of Boy Scouts. Nearly 250 boys participated in the program, which consisted of 21 events. A large crowd lined both sides of the pool.

Troop 52 of Sedalia was the runner-up with 40 points. The other ten troops taking part in the program finished as follows:

Explorer Post 54, Sedalia, 35 points; Troop 45, Marshall, 31 points; Troop 58, Sedalia, 26 points; Troop 69, Sedalia, 23 points; Troop 1, Jefferson City, 23 points; Troop 46, Marshall, 22 points; Troop 64, Sedalia, 21 points; Troop 54, Sedalia, 19 points; Troop 32, Warsaw, 7 points; and Troop 32, Warsaw, 7 points.

Ralph "Stub" Dow was the official starter and the following men served as judges for the event: Dick Stohr, Bill Hodges, Richard Smith, Bob Mathews and F. L. Drake. Henry Sutton was the director of the event.

The winners in individual events:

Swimmers (Boy Scouts)

140-foot free style, Jim Self of Troop 64, the winner.

B. J. Playoffs to Start This Week.

MOBERLY, Mo., Aug. 14.—(AP)—First and second half winners this week begin three-game play-offs to decide the Central Missouri Ban Johnson league's northern and southern division pennants.

The Unionville Packers, first half titlists and the Brookfield Bombers, second half victors, open play tonight at Unionville to decide the northern flag. The series is due to shift to Brookfield tomorrow night.

In the southern division, the Columbia McKays, first half winners, clash with the Moberly Miners, who topped the second half, at Columbia tomorrow night. The teams will move to Moberly on Thursday. Third game, if necessary, will be played on neutral fields.

Division titlists are scheduled to open best-of-three-of-five series Sunday to decide the Central Missouri championship. The winners will face the Kansas City league champs in a five-game series due to start Aug. 26.

The Sedalia Chiefs lost in the playoff for the second half title to Moberly, 6 to 5. The game was played Monday night at Boonville.

The Miners took an early lead over the Chiefs and were never behind. They scored one in the second, one in the fourth and staged a "knockout" rally in the top of the seventh, resulting in four runs and the removal of Joe Imhauser from the mound.

Sedalia came back in the bottom of the eighth to stage what appeared would be at least a tying rally, but it was snapped off after the Chiefs collected 5 runs. The game went scoreless from there.

Semi-Finals Reached In Club Tournament

Long-hitting John Van Dyne and methodical J. J. McGrath were extended to the limit Sunday, but both battled their way into the semi-final round of the Country club championship.

Van Dyne edged ever-tough Dick Gorrell one-up in 20 holes, the tourney's longest match and McGrath nipped Damon Hieronymus by a similar margin, the victory coming on the final hole.

In the other quarter-final match Gentry Patterson had an easier time, putting Tom Yount out of the running in 16 holes, 3 and 2.

This trio joined Bill Gibson in the third round of the annual event. Gibson eliminated Mayor Herb Studer, one-up Saturday.

Semi-final matches pit McGrath and Gibson in the top bracket and Patterson and Van Dyne in the lower.

Bill Holland Will Practice Before Race

To Try Fair Track In Attempt to Break Luptow's Win Streak

Bill Holland, the Indianapolis 500-mile race star, will arrive in Sedalia early Saturday to tune up his Blue Crown Offenhauser for the attempt to snap Frankie Luptow's long State Fair winning streak in the opening motor speed events Sunday afternoon.

Holland told State Fair race officials Monday in a phone call from Detroit, where he raced on Sunday, that he hoped to get in his first practice spins for his first race against Luptow's big winner at Sedalia the past two years.

Won the Indianapolis "500"

The first Indianapolis 500-mile race winner ever to compete in Missouri State Fair competition said his Offenhauser entry is the same car he raced to two eastern AAA dirt track championships but that he had bought it only last week.

He said the car, known as the "Malamud Offy," has been driven all year by Bill Schindler, noted one-legged easterner, and is now in now leading on points for the 1951 eastern AAA championship.

"It's got a lot of sting," Holland told W. E. (Bill) Preston, State Fair secretary. "They tell me Luptow's Black Panther really flies, but I'll have to."

Big AAA Drivers

Holland pointed out that Schindler has beaten Troy Ruttman, Johnny Parsons, Duane Carter and virtually all the leading AAA drivers with the car during the 1951 dirt track campaigns.

Meanwhile, entries for the Sunday speed battles were building up past the 20 mark.

Three crack midget racing stars have joined the field, Preston said, two of them with big car Offenhausers.

Bob Slater, Kansas City winner of three recent Olympic stadium main events, will pilot the beautiful Bud Wilson Offenhauser from St. Joe and Wayne Seltzer, another top-rated Olympic star, is coming to the State Fair events with a powerful Offenhauser motor installed in an Indianapolis speedway chassis.

The third newcomer from the midget ranks is Jerry Kemp, who hails from Terre Haute, Ind.

Musial Hits His 200th Homer

By The Associated Press

Nine seasons ago Stan Musial powered his first out-of-the-park hit for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Last night at Sportsman's park league home run.

The blow—an inside-the-park affair to deep center field—wasn't enough to bring the Cards home safely, however, as the Chicago Cubs put together a five-run second inning for a 6-3 triumph.

Dick Bokelmann, a rookie right hander making his first major league start, was the victim of the Chicago uprising. Five hits, an intentional walk and two Cardinal errors gave the Cubs their chance.

Tom Poholsky came in to relieve the newcomer and give up five hits the rest of the way. A third Card miscue in the sixth gave the Cubs their final run.

Wally Westlake also hit a home run for the Cards, No. 101 in five National League seasons and his 20th of the year. Musial's round tripper was his 26th of the season.

The Cubs and Cardinals wind up their two-game series tonight before the Redbirds leave on a road tour. Cal McLish (3-6) will be the probable Chicago starter against Cardinal Cliff Chambers (8-10).

The St. Louis Browns are idle for the second straight day today before opening at Sportsman's park against the Cleveland Indians tomorrow night.

Dick Klamfoth Enters 'cycle Races at Fair

Motorcycle Races to Open First Day of Thrills on Saturday

The State Fair motorcycle races are scheduled to open the 1951 exposition here Saturday afternoon with some of the sport's most celebrated handle-bar experts in the AMA-sanctioned competition.

Already, reports W. E. (Bill) Preston, secretary, topflight riders from 11 states have returned signed entries, among them two national champions.

An Ohio Farm Boy

Dick Klamfoth, Groveport, Ohio farm boy who has won motorcycle racing's richest event, the 200-mile at Daytona Beach, Fla., twice in the past three years, heads the entry roster. He will ride an English-made Norton.

Bill Tuman, the 1950 national champion at both five and eight-mile distances, is the second AMA titleholder. He hails from St. Louis.

Other favored contenders include Paul Goldsmith, Detroit; Joe Holoubek, Omaha; Johnny Greenlee, St. Louis; Len Patient, Belleville, Ill.; and Bob Chambers, Little Rock, Ark., all classed as "experts" in AMA competition.

Indians Dash Toward the Pennant Flag

Tribe Has Won Its Eleventh Game In Succession

By Joe Reichler Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's onrushing Indians continue to whiz by all opposition as the "Lopez Limited" speeds steadily toward its destination—Pennantville.

No wonder the Indians, led by manager Al Lopez, are talking pennant today. They never were so well off.

The Tribe won again last night, defeating Detroit, 2-1.

The victory increased their first place margin over the runnerup New York Yankees in the American League to two and a half games as Philadelphia sheeked the Bronxites for the third straight time, 16-8.

The Tribe has won 11 straight, only two short of the club's all-time record of 13 accomplished in 1942.

"We're on our way," said Lopez. "I don't see how anyone can stop us now."

A three-run homer by Gil Hodges in the eighth inning gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7-6 victory over Boston's Braves and left their 12 1/2 game first place margin intact. The runner-up New York Giants won their third straight from Philadelphia's Phils, 5-2.

Cincinnati swept a doubleheader from Pittsburgh, 2-0 and 7-1 while Chicago's Cubs upset the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-3.

Boston, Washington, St. Louis and Chicago, the American League were not scheduled.

Not Count Yanks Out

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Don't count the New York Yankees out—yet.

Trite though the expression is, it's true. The Yanks haven't abdicated the world championship throne or given up the fight for the American League pennant despite their current slump.

It's nothing that a little better pitching—particularly from an over-worked bullpen—couldn't cure.

And manager Casey Stengel, grizzled veteran of the baseball wars, agrees. He watched sadly as Philadelphia Athletics' hitters, generally not a ferocious bunch, clubbed his pitchers for three straight victories in two days; a total of 46 hits and 32 runs.

The worst came last night as

Junior Legion to Play Tonight

The Junior Legion Post 16 will meet the Knob Noster team tonight at Liberty park. Game time will be at 8:00 o'clock.

Manager Barr and Coach Ray will probably use "Skip" Schulz or Billy Arnold on the mound, with Larry Mines receiving. It is understood that several Sedalia boys are in the Knob Noster lineup.

The Post 16 starting lineup will probably be Floyd Burton, first base; Carl Miller or Elroy Burton, second base; Bob Lane, shortstop; "Sonny" Thomas, third base; Billy Dey, left field; "Buck" Bennett, centerfield; Bob Bartlett, right field; Larry Mines, catch; John Brooks, Jim Fall, Jimmy Schmitt, and H. C. Williams will all be on hand for action.

The A's pummeled four hurlers, starting with ace righthander Vic Raschi, for a total of 18 hits and a 16-8 triumph. It was the most runs and the most hits (in a nine-inning game) against the Yanks this year.

What's more, it enabled the gleeful A's to take the series, three games to two, and knock the Yanks out of a first place tie with the Cleveland Indians. The three losses put New York 2 1/2 games behind leading Cleveland.

That's really not as bad as it seems. Actually the Yanks were worse off on this same date (Aug. 14) a year ago. Then they were tied for second with Cleveland, three games behind the Detroit Tigers. But the Yanks went on to win the pennant.

Failure of the Yankee bullpen, the relief pitchers, is the chief cause of the current reverses. Stengel doesn't minimize the weakness. And he admits the situation has him worried, since he can count on virtually no help from the New York farm clubs.

Well Digger Struck Rich Iron Deposit

By Hal Boyle

HIBBING, Minn., Aug. 14.—(P)—Back in 1892 a lumber camp roustabout named Pete was digging a well near here.

He complained that after digging through six feet of sticky red clay his shovel hit a substance easier to spade through but it was "heavy as iron."

Jim Kennedy, another lumberman, heard him and pondered the remark. He sent for Frank Hibbing, a mining man. Hibbing went into the well, sifted the heavy earth an dsaid:

"Yep, boys, iron, for sure — and it seems to be rich."

That was the birth of the world's largest iron mine in the heart of the great Mesabi range, for half a century a wellspring of America's industrial might.

Today the spade that roustabout Pete held has been replaced by huge electric shovels that take up ten tons at a single bite. The well Pete started has grown into a vast pit covering 1,450 acres. It is almost 500 feet deep, up to a mile wide and three-and-one-half miles long.

It is a great man-made Grand Canyon of fantastic colors — beautiful layers of red, yellow, purple and black — and of fantastic wealth.

Since striping began here in 1895 the "big hole" has yielded 496,558,000 tons of ore averaging 50 to 62 per cent iron. Today it is worth about $7.50 a ton. But at an average price of $5 a ton over the years the tremendous pit's output has been almost $2,500,000,000.

Helped Arm America

Out of all this wealth poor, forgotten Pete probably never even got the price of a new shovel. History doesn't even bother to record whether his well produced water.

But it did help build and arm America.

This ore pit produced 25 per cent of the iron used in the last world war," said John Hurdling, Jr., a general superintendent for the Oliver Mining company.

This company, largest of several mining the pit, dug 100,000,000 tons during the war years. This year it will get out only about 6,000,000 tons, for "the hole" has passed its peak. It is a declining giant, so far as the production of high-grade ore is concerned.

But there are tremendous reserves of low-grade or taconite ore, and ways are being found to process it.

"The ingenuity of Minnesota miners can assure ample ore supplies for generations to come," says R. T. Elstad, president of the Oliver company, a subsidiary of U. S. Steel.

His optimism is reflected by such workers as foreman Bob Toomey, 41, who has earned his living in the big hole since he was 15.

"My father was a shovel operator here, and my grandfather was a miner," he said. "By now our family has got iron in its blood."

"There's quite a bit of stuff here yet. Enough to last my lifetime, I'm sure."

The pit was begun by Irishmen like Toomey, Swedes and Cornishmen — called "Cousin Jacks." Then other workers flooded in from south and central Europe. Now more than 30 nationalities work peacefully together in this melting pot capital of the iron ore industry.

The ore is so valuable that when deposits were found beneath old Hibbing the entire town was moved two miles away so the shovels might paw up its former site.

Some day, of course, the deep rifts of ore will be gone forever. A visitor once asked a veteran mining man what would be done with the big hole then.

"Well," he said, winking, "we can always plant it with grass, turn sheep loose in it, and raise steel wool."

400 Take Rabies Shots In Anti-Polio Program

FROST, Tex., Aug. 14.—(P)—More than 400 persons showed up at the Frost public high school Monday morning for rabies shots.

It's part of the program of Dr. Herbert E. Hipps of Waco to test his theory that persons who have had rabies shots have not contracted polio.

Two hundred persons in the area around Frost in the blackland cotton belt of central Texas had volunteered to take five rabies shots in five days. But this morning twice as many showed up.

Dr. Will Miller, head of the Navarro county health unit, said: "I want it clear that this program is strictly private. It is being put on by private individuals through the assistance of the Corsicana and Navarro county health unit."

Funds have been provided the health unit by the Navarro County Foundation, a private enterprise.

11-Year-Old Drowns At High Ridge, Mo.

(P)—Milton Cummings, Jr., 11, drowned Monday in a private swimming pool in this Jefferson county community 20 miles southwest of St. Louis.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cummings of (4452 Pennsylvania Ave.) St. Louis.

Cummings had been swimming in the pool with five other children.

Red Cross Amends Policies On Its Annual Solicitation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—(P)—The American National Red Cross today amended its policies to permit local chapters to cooperate with community or federalized fund raising agencies in joint solicitation of industries or business firms where only one annual solicitation is permitted.

The revision in policy was decided upon at a special meeting of the board of governors.

E. Roland Harriman, president of the Red Cross, said in a statement:

"The board's action does not change the basic Red Cross fund raising policy which is . . . that the Red Cross must raise its own money for its own needs."

"We have recognized however," he added, "the desire of certain community leaders to hold a single industrial solicitation for welfare and charitable purposes. We have been given assurances by a number of industrial, business and labor leaders that a single campaign of this character is necessary in the interest of manpower conservation and other emergency measures."

Polio Claims Fourth Victim

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 14.—(P)—Richard Glover, 11, Lee's Summit, Mo., died of polio at a hospital here, bringing to four the number of deaths from the disease in the Kansas City area this year.

The boy was admitted to the hospital Saturday suffering from Bulbar polio.

The health department said six new cases entered hospitals yesterday.

Plowing Contest Opens Thursday At Bethany

BETHANY, Mo., Aug. 14.—(P)—The National and Missouri Soil conservation field day and plowing matches will be held Thursday and Friday on tracts ten miles south of here.

Harold Cash, Harrison county agent, said a large number of quality Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn breeding animals will be on exhibition in connection with the field day.

Feeder calves also will be exhibited on the sites of the plowing matches.

Adjournment Not In Sight For Congress

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—(P)—Democratic leaders have begun talking of Congress going home in October. But it may be wishful thinking in the August heat.

There's still a mountain of work to be moved if Congress even makes a dent in the huge pile of bills introduced since Jan. 1.

To date, a total of 7,130 measures have been offered—5,130 in the House and 2,000 in the Senate. Only 115 of them have become law—that is passed by both houses and approved by the President.

McFarland Still Hopes

Senate Democratic leader McFarland (Ariz.) told reporters after a White House conference with President Truman and top party leaders that he hopes to close shop on Oct. 1.

That would indicate the great bulk of the bills now pending will be left for the second session of the 82nd Congress next year—the big political year.

House speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) wasn't as optimistic as McFarland. He said he had "no idea" when Congress would be able to quit work. He added he hopes the House will be in a position late next week to start a ten day recess.

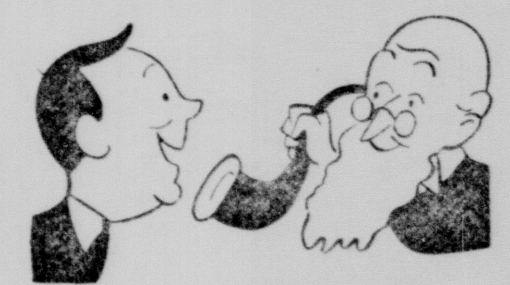

The major work still to be done is all highly controversial. It includes:

1. Final approval of money bills to keep the government and the military running for another year. Agencies now are operating on a day-to-day stop-gap basis until the appropriations measure are passed.
2. Agreement on economic and military aid abroad.
3. New tax bills.

McFarland expects the Senate finance committee to report a tax increase bill by Labor Day and all "must" legislation to be approved by the end of September. Phone 1000.
